

Brown Sugar Stitchers Quilt Guild & Hammonds House Museum

PRESENT

THE MANY FACETS OF AFRICAN-AMERICAN QUILTING

2009 Bi-Annual Quilt Show
Contemporary, Traditional, Art Quilts & Dolls

EXHIBITION AUGUST 1-7, 2009

10 a.m. - 5 p.m. Daily (Closed Sunday)

SOUTH FULTON ARTS CENTER

4645 Butner Road
College Park, Georgia 30349

Children's Activities Lecture by Dr. Carolyn Mazloomi
Silent Auction Lecture and Appraisals by Holly Anderson
Quilts for the Carrie Steele Pitts Children's Home

Saturday, August 1 - South Fulton Arts Center

2-4pm Lecture • 4-6pm Reception

Admission $10

Special Guest Lecturer

Dr. Carolyn L. Mazloomi

Other Opening Reception Events

Quilt Raffle • Meet the Artists • View and Purchase Unique Handcrafted Quilts and Dolls

Clara Ford Quilt Lecture Series

Sunday, August 2 - Hammonds House Museum

2-5pm Lecture & Reception

Admission $10

Dr. Carolyn L. Mazloomi

Lecture and Book Signing by World Renowned Quilt Artist, Author, Scholar and Expert

Saturday, August 8 - Hammonds House Museum

10-11:30am Lecture Admission Free/Donation Only

12-5pm Quilt Appraisals by Appointment Only $40 Per Session.

Call 404.612.0481 or quilts@hammondshouse.org

Holly Anderson - is certified by the American Quilter's Society and is the only licensed certified quilt appraiser in the state of Georgia. Appraisers are qualified to give fair market, insurance, and donation values to quilts and quilted textiles. Appraisal consultation discussion lasts approximately 30 min. each. Written documentation will be sent at the conclusion of research.

Hammonds House Museum
Proud Recipient of the Following 2008-09 Grant Awards
THE ANDY WARHOL FOUNDATION FOR THE VISUAL ARTS, INC.
Metropolitan Atlanta Arts Fund

The Fulton County Board of Commissions through the Fulton County Arts Council provides major funding to Hammonds House Museum

